

Objectives of Andrew David Morgan set forward following appointment as a Braddan Parish Commissioner in July 2021

My key objectives during my term in office include:-

- To assist with the satisfactory completion of the Mullen Doway ensuring that it is habitable at the very earliest opportunity.
- To identify and support further initiatives to develop and improve the availability of social housing.
- To pro-actively seek solutions to housing shortages in a fair and reasonable fashion ensuring that this is not to the detriment of existing residents of Braddan.
- To assist with the smooth running of the Strang Cornfield project, with main objectives to ensure delivery on time and within budget and that to ensure that the facilities available are beneficial to the Braddan community.
- To maintain regular dialogue with members of the community and to make myself available to constituents as often as possible.
- To help to maintain Braddan's reputation for being a safe community with low rates of crime and excellent family facilities by prioritising safety and ensuring that there is ample and adequate recreational facilities.
- To ensure that Braddan Parish does its bit for the environment by embracing green initiatives wherever possible.

Above all else, my main interest is to fairly represent the people of Braddan, acting with honesty and integrity whilst ensuring that their interests are protected.
