23/016 Complaints Procedure – Updated for 2023

Consideration was given to a proposed amendment to the complaints procedure which clarified the independent role of the Tynwald Commissioner for Administration in relation to the matter and gave more information on how the office could be contacted.

It was unanimously resolved to accept the proposal and the Clerk was asked to make the necessary changes.

23/017 Manx Lottery Trust – Grant Application – Playground Equipment

It was unanimously resolved to note the confirmation that the authority had been successfully awarded a grant of £50,000 which would help toward the cost of the playground at the Roundhouse.

23/018 Any other Business

1. Rural Industries : Mr Quaye observed that the pavement on the Peel Road from Rural Industries to Braddan Church was very narrow, and that soil that had eroded from the bank was possibly masking about 1 metre of pavement. The Clerk agreed to contact the Department.
2. Heritage Trail: Mr Quaye asked that the Heritage Trail be swept as a matter of urgency.
3. Fallen tree at the Downs: Mr Quaye advised that the Department of Infrastructure had still not removed the tree that was damaging the pavement that had severely lifted. The Clerk agreed to contact the Department again.
